

Privacy Policy

Bryony Smith Interiors is committed to respecting and protecting your privacy and we want to be clear about the data we collect, how we use it and your right to control that information.

The information that you share with us enables us to provide a service to you. We collect this information through enquiries on this website, telephone, electronic or written correspondence. We may ask you for certain personal information such as your name, telephone number, email address and private or business address as well as information that relates to the product or service you are enquiring about.

We will use your personal details to provide you with the information that you have requested from us. This website complies with all UK national laws and requirements for user privacy.

To provide our services we may need to pass your details onto other organisations, these include other businesses we work with. In these circumstances we will ensure your data is properly protected and is only used in accordance with this policy.

From time to time we may wish to contact you with news and information about Bryony Smith Interiors that may be of interest to you.

Data Security:

Bryony Smith Interiors is governed by the data protection laws in the United Kingdom and takes all reasonable precautions to keep your personal information secure.

Amending or removing your details:

If you have any questions, comments or concerns about how we handle your personal information, then you may contact us by emailing info@bryonysmith.com

You have the right to tell us if you:

- Don't want to be contacted in the future by us
- Would like us to correct, update, or delete your personal information in our records
- Wish to report any misuse of your personal information

Social Media Platforms:

Communication, engagement and actions taken through external social media platforms that this website and its owners participate on are subject to the terms and conditions and privacy policies held by each social media platform respectively.

Users are advised to use social media platforms wisely and to communicate and engage upon them with due care and caution in regard to their own personal details and privacy. This website nor its owners will ever ask for sensitive or personal information through social media platforms and encourage users wishing to discuss sensitive details to contact them through primary communication channels such as by email or telephone. Contact details can be found on this website.

Changes to our Privacy Policy:

We may change this Privacy Notice from time to time by posting the updated version of the Privacy Policy on this website. We encourage you to visit frequently to stay informed about how we use your personal information.

Use of Cookies:

We use cookies to make our website easier for you to use, however you can remove any cookies already stored on your computer by adjusting your browser's settings. Google Analytics, which is used throughout the site, uses 'performance' cookies to collect information about how you use the website, for example which pages you visit, and if you experience any errors. These cookies don't collect any information that could identify you personally. The information collected is used to help us improve how our website works, understand what interests our users and measure how effective our advertising is. We will not use these cookies to gather information that could be used to advertise products or services to you on other websites.

In some cases, some of these cookies are managed by third parties, but we don't allow the third party to use the cookies for any purpose other than those listed above.

Using our site indicates that you accept the use of these cookies.

Accepting these cookies is a condition of using the website, so if you prevent these cookies we can't guarantee your security or predict how our website will perform during your visit. If you would still prefer to use the site with cookies disabled you can do so by changing your browser settings.
